Local songwriters win John Lennon Songwriting Contest and visit from the John Lennon Educational Tour Bus

Children's Performers Chip and Vince Will Join the Lennon State-Of-the-Art Mobile Recording Studio at Old Greenwich School on Monday, April 11

GREENWICH, CT APRIL 5, 2005 – Charlie Mangold and Vince Nobile of *The Chip and Vince Show won Song of the Year in the children's category for their upbeat kid's anthem "Turn That Frown Upside Down", and as winners will receive a special visit by the John Lennon Educational Tour Bus for the children of Greenwich.

The Tour Bus will be making a stop at the Old Greenwich School, 285 Beach Avenue in Greenwich, on Monday, April 11th at 1-5pm and will include an interactive appearance with The Chip and Vince Show, where they will give out their CD and shoot scenes for an upcoming episode of their cable show. Children will get to go on the bus and see this amazing state of the art mobile production facility. The event is open to all children and their parents.

The John Lennon Educational Tour Bus (www.jlsc.com) is a non-profit mobile recording studio that has provided free hands-on programs to hundreds of schools with some of the biggest names in music. The Lennon Bus encourages students to play music, write songs and make music video projects using the latest audio, video, and live sound equipment.

The Chip and Vince Show television program is a musical adventure of cool kid's music, Blue's Clues meets Bill Nye the Science Guy, where Chip and Vince explore various topics through the experience of music and the process of songwriting. "Special Day" the first album by The Chip and Vince Show, has been called "The White Album" of children's music, and has received rave reviews from children and their parents as the perfect CD to play on the way to school.

The Chip and Vince Show airs Friday nights at 9pm and Saturday mornings at 8:30 am on Channel 77 Connecticut Public Access. Music and information are available at www.chipandvince.com.
